True-Living: The B's of Dream Building (Part 4 of 4)

In this final Part 4 in the Series of The B's of Dream Building (Blueprinting, Bridging and Building) we will culminate all that we've learned into "Becoming" the person living the life we love! This is where you harvest your dream! This is the most exciting and exhilarating phase of your Dream Building! Your Becoming is when you begin living the life you love and experiencing the transformative qualities you've worked so hard to assimilate into your new life. You have attained multiple goals towards living your dream and aspects of your dream life has manifest into your reality.

You may become a totally different person than you were just 12 weeks ago prior to your Dream Builder coaching program. You may hardly recognize yourself and this should be a wonderful surprise. You are becoming a person who has allowed yourself to dream, design and test your dream. Just learning to navigate the gap between where you used to be and where you are today has been quite the accomplishment! You have learned to build your dream and now you are harvesting your dream! Becoming is life's journey so there will always be more unfoldment as you allow it to work its magic.

As your dream manifests into your reality gaining your freedom, the essence of life within you desires to express an ever fuller, upward spiral of life and you will have increased urgings to continue to grow and transform your becoming. Your dreams may continue to grow and expand.

You may see new aspects to your dream life that you want to implement. New longings for an even greater life experience may tug on your heart strings. Others witnessing your transformation may inquire as to how they can experience improvement in their current existence. They may want the hope of a greater, fuller expression of their life's purpose.

This is your opportunity to share your source for transformation. You have the opportunity to refer those who inquire for coaching so they, too, can begin healing their world! This is the purpose for all of us as we begin to heal our world. Share the blessings with the observers of your life transformation!

This may, also, be a great time to repeat the Dream Building program one more time, because you will be a different person at an advanced stage of your dream life. The program will solidify in your soul as you practice the principles over and over—Blueprinting + Bridging + Building = Becoming!

This would be an awesome time for you to invite a group of friends and family that would experience the Dream Building program together as a small group with you. This way your weekly coaching calls would only be your private group you've invited to join.

If you are considering the Dream Building coaching experience, please contact me. I schedule a limited number of complimentary Strategy Sessions each week. This is a 30-minute call valued at $250 which will discover your dream and determine if we are a good coach/client fit.
