

True-Living: Experimenting with Greater Thoughts

By Mary Ann Pack

“Logic will get you from A to B. Imagination will take you everywhere.” ~Albert Einstein

Have you experimented with greater thoughts in your life?

Have you allowed yourself to experiment with bigger visions?

Have you asked yourself what you really want?

We tend to know what we don't want. That seems to come natural.

But have you ever considered what you would truly love to do in your life?

Maybe it's time to finally allow yourself to look deep inside and consider re-opening your imagination!

When I started to allow myself to really experiment with greater thoughts for my life, a whole new experience has opened up to me!

I'm finally doing exactly what I meant to do on this earth!

The ONE thing that we are ALL meant to do--be our most authentic, true selves and develop our highest good.

That may mean changing a lot of things in our lives from living in our old paradigm and old patterns of what we've already known.

We must start living deliberately as Thoreau instructed us. It's living on purpose and with purpose instead of ho-hum same existence we've already lived.

When you're 90 will you have lived 90 years of life or just ONE year 90 times?
